CHANGING LIVES THROUGH MUSIC

The National Repertory Orchestra provides young adult musicians with an intensive and realistic experience of the professional musician’s world while creating a highly acclaimed eight week Summer Music Festival in Breckenridge, Colorado.

The NRO attracts and develops the highest caliber of aspiring professional musicians. They are the future of classical music in America. The success of our Summer Gala helps fund the tuition-free program, including expenses for the audition tour, musician housing and food, promotion and production of the concerts, career perspective programs, and Education and Community Engagement Program training.

Attendees:

Expected attendance is 300. While our attendees span the ages of 21 to 80, the majority are between the ages of 35 and 70. They enjoy classical music or are committed to the mission of the organization.

Attire:

Black Tie Optional
